

International Foundation Programme – Scotland (ifps) provides pre-university education for international students. Teaching, in private classes, prepares students for the national examinations in Scotland - Scottish Qualifications Authority Highers - which are internationally recognised qualifications.

Course details -

1. University Foundation Programme (UFP)

Leading to Medical Sciences, Arts, all Sciences and Social Sciences.
23 August 2010 - September 2011. Tuition fees - 9600 pounds sterling.

2. Fast Track Programme (FTP)

Leading to Arts, Sciences and Social Sciences (except Medical Sciences).
4 January 2010 - September 2010. Tuition fees - 7100 pounds sterling.

Fast Track Programme (FTP) students sit ifps examinations which are accepted by universities as the equivalent of Scottish Highers.

In addition, students will require 600 pounds sterling per month for accommodation and general living expenses. Accommodation is arranged with local host families.

ifps is a unique Foundation Programme in that our IIP and UFP students undertake the national curriculum, together with ifps communication skills English programme (no literature content).

How do I apply?

If you are interested in ifps, we require a completed application form, together with copies of your mid-term or final year School Certificate(s) and information regarding your level of English. We shall then be in a position to give your application immediate consideration.

An application form is available on our website at: www.ifps.ac and can be submitted electronically or faxed to us on +44 (0) 141 357 0199.
